RESISTING ARREST

a class A MISDEMEANOR contrary to the provisions of section 205.30 of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

THE SAID DEFENDANT, AT THE AFORESAID TIME AND PLACE, DID INTENTIONALLY PREVENT OR ATTEMPT TO PREVENT A POLICE OFFICER OR PEACE OFFICER FROM EFFECTING AN AUTHORIZED ARREST OF HIMSELF OR ANOTHER PERSON. TO WIT: On the above-listed date, time and location the Defendant did operate an unregistered red 2000 Pontiac Bonneville and was stopped for Vehicle and Traffic Law infractions. The Defendant refused to provide the Complainant with his actual name and date of birth, despite being warned by the Complainant of the consequences of lying about his name and date of birth numerous times. The Defendant was then asked to step out of the vehicle, to which he again repeatedly refused. The Complainant and other officers were forced to break a window in order to unlock the vehicle's doors. The Defendant was then observed to make furtive movements toward the center console/driver's floorboard of the vehicle and had to be ordered at gunpoint to show his hands. The Defendant still refused to leave the vehicle and had to be forcibly removed by officers, forcibly handcuffed, all the time pushing his body back against officers and attempting to pull his arms away. A loaded pistol was later recovered from the driver's side floorboard of the aforementioned vehicle.

ALL CONTRARY TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE STATUTE IN SUCH CASES MADE AND PROVIDED. THE ABOVE ALLEGATIONS OF FACT ARE MADE BY THE COMPLAINANT HEREIN ON DIRECT KNOWLEDGE.

Therefore, the complainant requests that said defendant be dealt with according to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Law, and according to law.

INVENTORY: PO Petit, pictures by Lt. Brown

REMARKS: On the above-listed date and time, R/O was travelling northbound on Eggert Road behind the listed vehicle. R/O observed what appeared to be a laminated temporary license plate attached to the rear of the listed vehicle. R/O could not easily see the plate, but was able to get close enough to see it appeared to be an Indiana Temporary registration, serial J356985. R/O ran the plate in Indiana and it came back not on file. R/O attempted to run the plate several more times with several different variations of the plate with negative results. The plate also appeared not to match the appearance of Indiana Temporary Registrations. Based on this information, R/O initiated a V&T stop at the listed address for VTL 402-1 and 402-4. R/O made contact with the vehicle's occupants, later identified as driver Offender David Gray and front seat passenger Offender Eddie Lovett. Neither party appeared to be wearing their available seatbelts. R/O spoke with Offender Gray, who stated he was a sovereign citizen and gave his name as "LordKing David Ahmende Nubahre Ah-Menrelemurrayzz" and stated that he did not have a driver's license. When asked, Offender Gray repeatedly stated that the aforementioned was his legal name and that R/O had no right to detain him for "violations." Gray was warned several times of the consequences of giving R/O false information, to which he continued to give R/O the aforementioned name and present R/O with nonsensical documents regarding his "sovereign citizenship." R/O also spoke with Lovett, who stated that he was a vehicle dealer and that the driver was transporting the vehicle for him. Neither party could provide R/O with a valid registration, inspection or insurance information. The VIN of the vehicle showed it to be unregistered in NY or IN. When cover officers arrived, R/O finally told Offender Gray to exit the vehicle. Gray refused and asserted he had a right to travel in his "vessel." Gray was given multiple opportunities to exit the vehicle and refused. R/O, PO Petit and Lt. Brown then attempted to remove both parties from the vehicle, but found the vehicle door to be locked. Gray refused to unlock the vehicle and continued to obstruct Patrols. PO Petit did use a Resq-Me device to shatter the rear driver's side window and unlock the vehicle doors. Lt. Brown removed Offender Lovett from the passenger seat, where he was handcuffed and detained without further incident. At this point, Offender Gray began to make furtive movements toward the center console and driver's side floor board of the vehicle. R/O and PO Petit did draw their department-issued sidearms and gave Offender Gray clear instructions to show his hands. Offender Gray did initially ignore Patrols, but did eventually comply and place his hands on the steering wheel. Lt. Brown, PO Petit and R/O did then physically remove Gray from the vehicle where he was handcuffed. Gray continued to resist by throwing his body against Patrols and attempting to pull away. Gray was eventually arrested in the rear of a patrol vehicle.

vehicle. Both Offenders were Mirandized on scene, and at that point Offender Lovett did reveal Offender Gray's true name. A DMV check of Offender Gray's license revealed the listed suspensions. During the vehicle inventory, R/O recovered the listed pistol from in-between the front of the center console and the back of the driver's floorboard. The vehicle inventory was paused and the vehicle secured on scene by Patrols. PO Christmann did transport Offender Gray back to HQ, where he refused to be processed and was held pending arraignment. R/O did transport Offender Lovett to HQ without incident, where he was processed and held pending arraignment. United did respond and tow the vehicle to APD HQ, followed by PO Petit, where the vehicle inventory was completed by PO Petit and photographed by Lt. Brown. The listed evidence was tagged by R/O and secured in Evidence Locker # 25.

Remarks: RO responded to the above location to assist PO Walter and Lt. Brown on a traffic stop. PO Walter had the above listed vehicle pulled over and was speaking to driver David Gray, and front seat passenger Eddie Lovett. Gray and Lovett refused to identify themselves. After being given many chances to produce identification or a legitimate name and date of birth, Gray and Lovett continued to disobey officer's commands. Gray and Lovett then refused to get out of the vehicle. RO then utilized a window punch, which was ineffective on the front window, but was used successfully on the rear driver side window. Lovett decided to comply and get out of the vehicle, who was taken into custody by Lt. Brown. As Lt. Brown was taking Lovett into custody, Gray began making furtive movements towards the floor board. Gray was ordered to keep his hands on the steering wheel, which he complied to. Once Lovett was secured into a patrol car, Gray was again asked to exit the vehicle, which he disobeyed. RO, PO Walter, and Lt Brown had to forcefully remove Gray out of the vehicle, and take into custody. RO searched Gray incident to arrest and placed him into car 110.

PO Walter was inventorying the vehicle prior to being towed, and located above listed firearm by the front seat floorboard. The inventory was stopped, and United towed the vehicle back to HQ with RO following. RO and Lt Brown conducted the inventory in APD evidence garage, where the above listed firearm was recovered on the driver's seat floor board. RO located above listed NY license plate in the front passenger seat back pocket. RO seized above listed Indiana counterfeit license plate from the vehicle.
